What is this product?

BOC-Prudential European Index Fund (the “sub-fund”) is a sub-fund under the BOC-Prudential Index Fund Series, which is an umbrella unit trust established under the laws of Hong Kong. The sub-fund is a passively managed index tracking fund falling under Chapter 8.6 of the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds.

Objectives and Investment Strategy

The sub-fund seeks to provide investment performance (before fees and expenses) that tracks the performance of the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) by investing in a portfolio of securities traded on the stock exchanges in the United Kingdom and in other continental European countries. The sub-fund will not invest in securities traded outside Europe. Cash or time deposits may be considered when appropriate.

Normal Asset Allocation: 70% – 100% Europe-related securities (including United Kingdom and other continental European countries)
0 – 30% cash or time deposits

The Investment Manager will primarily adopt representative sampling strategy by which assets of the sub-fund will be invested in a portfolio featuring high correlation with the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged). The sub-fund adopts representative sampling strategy and may not hold all of the securities that are included in the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged). The Investment Manager may invest in securities included in the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged), or in other securities that are not included in the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) provided that the portfolio matches the characteristics of the index and such investment assists the sub-fund to achieve its investment objective and is subject to applicable investment restrictions. In selecting which securities to invest, the Investment Manager will use quantitative analytical models, under which each stock is considered for inclusion in the sub-fund based on its capitalisation, industry and fundamental investment characteristics. The sub-fund may overweight/underweight the underlying holdings of a particular constituent security's weighting in the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) provided that any such differences of weightings is subject to a maximum limit of 4% or such other percentage as determined by the Investment Manager after consultation with the SFC.

Currently, the sub-fund will not invest in listed futures, structured products or financial derivative instruments (“FDIs”) (dealt in over-the-counter (“OTC”) or listed/quoted on a stock exchange) or other OTC derivatives. Approval of the SFC will be obtained and prior notice of at least one (1) month will be given to the unitholders in case the sub-fund invests in any listed futures, structured products or FDIs.

Underlying Index - FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged)

The FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) is an index consisting of constituent securities listed on the European stock markets and is compiled and managed by FTSE International Limited ("FTSE").

The underlying index is a net total return, free float-adjusted market capitalisation weighted index. It forms part of the FTSE MPF Index Series which is developed by FTSE in collaboration with Willis Towers Watson and Hong Kong Investment Funds Association (HKIFA). The FTSE MPF Index Series was launched in 2001. The base currency of the underlying index is Hong Kong dollars and the base date of the underlying index is 30 November 2000.

FTSE is the index provider of the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged). FTSE is independent of the Investment Manager or its connected person.

As at 13 April 2022, the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) consists of 589 constituent securities and has a total market capitalisation of approximately USD 13,513.17 billion.

The list of constituent securities of the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) with their respective weightings are available on the website of the index provider (<https://www.ftse.com/analytics/factsheets/home/constituentsweights>). Investors should note that the list of constituent securities of the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) may be updated from time to time.

The index methodology and the latest index information of the FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) are available from the website of the index provider (www.ftserussell.com). Please refer to the "FTSE MPF North America Index (unhedged), FTSE MPF Europe Index (unhedged) and FTSE MPF China A Index" section of the Appendix to the Principal Brochure for further details of the underlying index.

Use of derivatives / investment in derivatives

The sub-fund will not use derivatives for any purposes.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

1. General Investment risk

The sub-fund's investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors below and therefore your investment in the sub-fund may suffer losses. There is no guarantee in respect of repayment of principal.

2. Currency risk

Underlying investments of the sub-fund may be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the sub-fund. Also, a class of Units may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the sub-fund. The net asset value of the sub-fund may be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.

3. Equity market risk

The sub-fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors.

4. Concentration risk

- The sub-fund's investments focus on Europe. The value of the sub-fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments.
- The value of the sub-fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the Europe market.

5. European economic and Eurozone risk

In light of ongoing concerns on the sovereign debt risk of certain countries within the Eurozone, the sub-fund's investments in the region may be subject to higher volatility, liquidity, currency and default risks. Any adverse events, such as credit downgrade of a sovereign or exit of EU members from the Eurozone, may have a negative impact on the value of the sub-fund.

6. Passive investment risk

The sub-fund is passively managed. Due to inherent nature of index funds, the Investment Manager of the sub-fund will not have the discretion to adapt to market changes and may not be able to take defensive positions where the relevant stock markets decline. Hence, any fall in the underlying index will result in a corresponding fall in the value of the sub-fund.

7. Portfolio management risk

Since the sub-fund will not fully replicate the underlying index, there is a risk that as the implementation of the Investment Manager's investment strategy is subject to a number of constraints, the investment strategy may not produce the intended results.

8. Tracking error risk

The sub-fund may be subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its performance may not track that of the underlying index exactly. The sub-fund's returns may therefore deviate from the underlying index and such tracking error may be a result of a number of factors, for example, the fees and expenses of the sub-fund and the need for the Investment Manager to adopt a representative sampling strategy. There can be no assurance of exact or identical replication at any time of the performance of the underlying index. The Investment Manager will monitor and seek to manage such risk to minimise tracking error.

9. Termination risk

The sub-fund may be terminated early under certain circumstances, for example, (i) where the index provider terminating the underlying index or not allowing the sub-fund to use the underlying index and there being no successor index; or (ii) at any time one year after the establishment of sub-fund its net asset value falling below HK$10,000,000. Investors may not be able to recover their investments and suffer a loss when the sub-fund is terminated.

10. RMB currency and conversion risk relating to Retail Class (RMB) Units

- RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB could adversely affect the value of investor's investment in the sub-fund.
- Although offshore RMB (CNH) and onshore RMB (CNY) are the same currency, they trade at different rates. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors.
- Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions and/or distribution payment in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

11. Cross-class liability risk

Although for the purposes of fund accounting, different fees and charges will be allocated to each class, there is no actual segregation of liabilities between different classes of Units. As such, in the event of insolvency or termination of the sub-fund, i.e. where the assets of the sub-fund are insufficient to meet its liabilities, all assets will be used to meet the sub-fund's liabilities, not just the amount standing to the credit of any individual class of Units.

How has the sub-fund performed?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-to-NAV, with distributions reinvested.
- Provident Class – Class A (HKD) Units are selected as representative class because this class is mainly subscribed by Unitholders as at the date of this statement.
- These figures show by how much Provident Class – Class A (HKD) Units increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in HKD including ongoing charges and excluding initial charge and redemption charge you might have to pay.
- Provident Class – Class A (HKD) Units were launched in 2011. Provident Class – Class B (HKD) Units were launched in 2014. Investment Class (HKD) Units were launched in 2013. Retail Class (HKD) Units and Retail Class (RMB) Units are launched in 2016. Retail Class (USD) Units are launched in 2020.
- Only Provident Class – Class A (HKD) Units, Provident Class – Class B (HKD) Units, Investment Class (HKD) Units, Retail Class (HKD) Units, Retail Class (RMB) Units and Retail Class (USD) Units are currently available.

Is there any guarantee?

The sub-fund does not provide any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.
