WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

Legg Mason Western Asset Global High Yield Fund (the "Fund") is a sub-fund of Legg Mason Global Funds Plc, which is constituted in the form of a mutual fund. It is domiciled in Ireland and its home regulator is Central Bank of Ireland.

OBJECTIVE AND INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Objective: The Fund's primary investment objective is to generate total return. The generation of high current income is a secondary objective.

Strategy: The Fund invests at least 70% of its net asset value in high yielding debt securities listed or traded on regulated markets. Higher yields are generally available from securities rated BB+ or lower by Standard & Poor's, or the equivalent by another nationally recognised statistical rating organisation ("NRSRO"), or unrated securities of equivalent quality. The Fund may invest in debt securities rated as low as D by Standard & Poor's or the equivalent by another NRSRO.

The types of debt securities in which the Fund may invest include: debt securities including government, supranational and corporate debt securities; convertible and non-convertible notes; commercial paper, certificates of deposits and bankers acceptances; structured notes whose underlying exposure may be to fixed income securities; mortgage-backed and asset-backed securities that are structured as debt securities; securitised participations in loans, Eurodollar bonds and Yankee dollar instruments, and Rule 144A securities. It is not expected that the Fund will invest more than 45% of its net asset value in high yield securities issued in emerging market countries, emerging European countries and/or emerging Asia/Pacific countries.

The Fund may also invest in money market instruments and non-publicly traded securities, convertible debt securities, preferred shares or other equity securities including warrants, other collective investment schemes, unsecuritised participations in or assignments of floating rate mortgages or other commercial loans, and other investments.

The Fund may invest up to 30% of its net asset value in (i) Additional Tier 1 capital, Tier 2 capital and senior non-preferred debt instruments; (ii) contingent convertible securities and (iii) bail-in bonds that have contingent write down or loss absorption features. The Fund may have exposure to reverse repurchase agreements for efficient portfolio management purposes and subject to the requirements of the Central Bank.

USE OF DERIVATIVES/ INVESTMENT IN DERIVATIVES:

The Fund's net derivative exposure¹ may be up to 50% of the Fund's net asset value.

¹ Please refer to the offering document for details regarding the calculation methodology of net derivative exposure.

WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

- Debt Securities Risk: Investments in debt securities are subject to risks such as credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, valuation risk and pricing volatility, which may cause substantial losses to the Fund. The prices of debt securities fluctuate in response to perceptions of the issuer's creditworthiness and also tend to vary inversely with market interest rates. Generally, and in the absence of hedging measures, the longer the average weighted duration of a fund, the greater the sensitivity to interest rates. Investment Grade securities may be subject to the risk of being downgraded to below Investment Grade. Debt securities rated below Investment Grade are deemed by rating agencies to be predominantly speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal and may involve major risk of exposure to adverse conditions.
- Risk of Government Securities: Government-issued debt securities are sensitive to changes in macro policy and associated interest rate trends, political and economic instability, social unrest and potentially default. Not all government debt securities are backed by the full faith and credit of the relevant government. Some are backed only by the credit of the issuing agency, instrumentality or sponsored entity, although they may be implicitly guaranteed by the relevant government. There is a chance of default on all government securities, particularly those not backed by the full faith and credit of the relevant government.

- Risk related to below investment grade / unrated securities: Debt securities rated below Investment Grade are deemed by rating agencies to be predominantly speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal and may involve major risk exposures to adverse conditions affecting the issuer. Unrated debt securities are not necessarily of lower quality than rated securities, however, they may not be attractive to as many buyers hence may be less liquid and with higher risks. The Fund may be invested in 'below investment grade' and/or unrated debt securities, which carry a higher degree of pricing volatility, market risk, liquidity risk and default risk than 'investment grade' debt securities. When any such risk materialises, the Fund may suffer a substantial loss.
- Interest Rate Risk: The value of debt securities is likely to decline in times of rising interest rates. Conversely, when rates fall, the value of these investments is likely to rise. The longer the time to maturity the greater are such variations.
- Credit Risk: The Fund's investment in debt securities expose the Fund to credit risk, i.e. the risk that an issuer of securities will be unable to pay principal and interest when due, or that the value of the security will suffer because investors believe the issuer is less able to pay. Ratings are only the opinions of the agencies issuing them. Such ratings are relative and subjective, and are not absolute standards of quality. The credit rating agency may change their ratings on particular debt securities held by the Fund, and downgrades are likely to adversely affect the price hence the Fund may suffer a substantial loss.
- Liquidity Risk: In certain circumstances it may be difficult to sell the Fund's investments because there may not be enough demand for them in the markets, in which case the Fund may not be able to sell or liquidate such investments or to sell them at a significant discount to the purchase price hence the Fund may suffer a substantial loss.
- Mortgage-Backed Securities and Asset-Backed Securities Risk: The Fund invests in mortgaged-backed securities (including collateralized debt obligations) and asset-backed securities which may be highly illiquid and prone to substantial price volatility. These instruments may be subject to greater credit, liquidity and interest rate risk compared to other debt securities. They are often exposed to extension and prepayment risks and risks that the payment obligations relating to the underlying assets are not met, which may adversely impact the returns of the securities.
- Derivatives Risks: This Fund may use certain types of financial derivative instruments (FDIs). These instruments may involve a higher degree of risk including but not limited to counterparty, volatility, liquidity, leverage and valuation risks, and the Fund may suffer a substantial loss. There is no guarantee that the performance of FDIs will result in a positive effect to the Fund.
- Emerging Markets Risk: This Fund may have significant exposure in emerging markets which involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, including liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility. Emerging market issuers may not be subject to the same accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards as developed countries. Emerging markets may have less reliable custody arrangements than mature markets which may also lead to a higher degree of risk. These factors may adversely affect the value of the securities owned by, hence a substantial loss to, the Fund.
- Custody and Settlement Risks: The Fund may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed. Such investments may be subject to additional risks with respect to the safe keeping of assets and making of investments, hence the Fund may suffer a substantial loss.
- Currency Risk: Fluctuations in exchange rates between the currency of the underlying securities and the Fund's base currency may adversely affect the value of an investment and any income derived from it. In addition, the value of your investment may fall due to changes in the exchange rate between the currency of your share class and the base currency of the Fund. With respect to any share class with "(Hedged)" in its name, the Fund will attempt to hedge the currency risk between the base currency of the Fund and the currency of the share class, although there can be no guarantee that it will be successful in doing so. The use of share class hedging strategies may substantially limit shareholders in the relevant Hedged Share Class from benefiting if the currency of the Hedged Share Class falls against the base currency and/or the currencies that are significant to the Fund's investment strategy, as applicable. Any hedging transactions, while potentially reducing the currency risks to which the Fund would otherwise be exposed, may involve certain other risks, including the risk of a default by a counterparty, and the risk that the Fund's forecast with respect to currency movements is incorrect. If the abovementioned hedging transactions become ineffective, the Fund may suffer a substantial loss.

- Renminbi ("RMB") Currency and Conversion Risks: RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example US Dollars) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB could adversely affect the value of investor's investment in the Fund. Although offshore RMB (CNH) and onshore RMB (CNY) are the same currency, they trade at different rates. Any divergence between CNH and CNY may adversely impact investors. Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions and/or dividend payment in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.
- Risk of Investing in Distributing Plus Share Classes: Distributing Plus share classes may pay dividends out of capital. The payment of dividends out of capital effectively amounts to a return or withdrawal of an investor's original capital investment or of capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distribution will result in a corresponding immediate decrease in the net asset value per share of the Share Classes. There is also an increased risk that on a redemption, you may not receive back the full amount invested. The distribution amount and net asset value of the Distributing (Hedged) Plus Share Class may be adversely affected by differences in the interest rates of the reference currency of the Distributing (Hedged) Plus Share Class and the Fund's base currency, resulting in an increase in the amount of distribution that is paid out of capital and hence a greater erosion of capital than other Share Classes.
- Investment Risk: The value of investments in the Fund and the income from them can go down as well as up, and investors may not get back the amount originally invested and may suffer a substantial loss to their investments. Past performance is no guide to future returns and may not be repeated. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.
- Risk of investing in instruments with loss-absorption features: The Fund may invest in debt instruments that have contingent write down or loss absorption features. Such instruments may be written-off fully or partially or converted to common stock on the occurrence of a trigger event. These instruments generally absorb losses in a trigger event, for example, where the issuer's capital falls below a certain level, and may be compulsorily redeemed as a result which may be out of the issuer's control. Such trigger events are complex and hard to predict, and may potentially lead to losses to the Fund. The Fund may invest in contingent convertible debt securities, commonly known as CoCos, which are highly complex and are of high risk. Upon the occurrence of the trigger event, CoCos may be converted into shares of the issuer (potentially at a discounted price), or may be subject to the permanent write-down to zero. Coupon payments on CoCos are discretionary and may be cancelled by the issuer at any point, for any reason, and for any length of time. The Fund may also invest in senior non-preferred debts. While these instruments are generally senior to subordinated debts, they may be subject to write-down upon the occurrence of a trigger event and will no longer fall under the creditor ranking hierarchy of the issuer. This may result in total loss of principal invested.

HOW HAS THE FUND PERFORMED?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-To-NAV, with dividend reinvested.
