What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Explanatory Memorandum for details including the risk factors.

- 1. Investment risk The Sub-Fund's investment portfolio may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors and therefore your investment in the Sub-Fund may suffer losses. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.
- 2. Concentration risk The Sub-Fund invests in the Hong Kong and China stocks and the value of the Sub-Fund may be more volatile than Sub-Funds having a more diverse portfolio of investments. Additionally, the value of the Sub-Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the single country or regional markets.
- 3. Market risk The Sub-Fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors, which may affect the NAV of the Sub-Fund.
- 4. Dividend paid effectively out of capital In respect of the R6 Class Units, the Fund Manager may at its discretion pay dividend out of gross income while paying all or part of the fees and expenses attributable to the R6 Class Units out of the capital of such Units, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividend in respect of the R6 Class Units and therefore, the Sub-Fund may effectively pay dividend out of capital. This amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of a Unitholder's original investment in the R6 Class Units or from capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividend effectively out of the capital of the R6 Class Units may result in an immediate reduction of its NAV per unit.
- 5. Risks associated with investment in China A-Shares through stock connect programmes The relevant rules and regulations on the stock connect securities trading and clearing linked programmes ("Stock Connect") are subject to change which may have potential retrospective effect. The Stock Connect programmes are subject to quota limitations. Where a suspension in the trading through the programme is effected, the Sub-Fund's ability to invest in China A-shares or access the PRC market through the programme will be adversely affected. In such event, the Sub-Fund's ability to achieve its investment objective could be negatively affected.

How has the Sub-Fund performed?

Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.

The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-to-NAV, with dividend reinvested.

These figures show by how much the Retail Class Units increased or decreased in value during the calendar year being shown. Performance data has been calculated in HKD including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee and redemption fee you might have to pay.

Where no past performance is shown there was insufficient data available in that year to provide performance.

Fund launch date: 1 November 2005 Retail Class launch date: 1 November 2005

Retail Class is selected as the most appropriate representative unit class as it has the longest track record.
